

Isla Muheres

Music by Steve Masakowski, lyrics by Steve Allen

Once as a traveler in my youth
I sailed on a sea of blue
To an island in the sun

Rested beside the bluest bay
Dreaming of love I'd find someday

Such beauty around me everywhere
But there was no one to share

Far I had wandered from my home
On this shore I dreamed alone

My heart wondered where were you?
Where oh where sweet rendezvous?
I've been longing to find you
On the Isle of love so true

Wetland

Music by Steve Masakowski, lyrics by Sasha Masakowski

Can I see what truth lies
In the dark skies
Of a stormy underworld

Visions, tainted visions
Fast decisions
In the fury of Her world

Can I see with my eyes
Truth that really lies
In a stormy underworld

Breaking all the ordinary boundaries of life and truly
Wasting away in a Wetland
No longer a fountain of youth

You laugh while you're undressing
The City you're possessing

Is this my promised blessing?
Where do we stand?

Undiluted Values

Music and lyrics by Sasha Masakowski

Close your eyes
And let go of your disposition
In that unusual way

She's so scared
Of accepting her intuition
In her unusual way

Undiluted Values are tearing me at my sleeves
It becomes our journey to wash away all of our fears
As we get older, and older, and deeper, and stronger and wiser
Disguise it until

We run of out
Of that magical disposition
In that unusual way

Mermaid

Music and lyrics by Sasha Masakowski

Breathing in the mist of the water
Floating peacefully on wings of invisible creatures
Gently washing Impurities of mine

In the ocean I can find you in the Sand
In this kingdom, Promised Land
Listen closely as a choir of fishes sing me a love song,
Each song is a lullaby

Taken by the tide and the moonlight
Unaware of direction in this euphoric dimension
Even God himself can't find me
I am lost in a peaceful, perfect, prepossessing countenance of you tonight

In the ocean I can find you in the Sand
In this kingdom, Promised Land
Listen closely as a choir of fishes sing me a love song,
Each song is a lullaby.

Sombras en la Noche

Music by Steve Masakowski, lyrics by Sasha Masakowski

Follow the sight of the shadows in the night
Listen you'll hear all the shadows that you fear
Follow the sound of the shadows on the ground
Listen you'll love what the shadows are made of

While you sleep to your door they will creep
Mystery plays a song, so you'll see

Follow the sight of the shadows in the night
Listen you'll hear all the shadows you fear

Listen. You hear. Shadows. You fear.
